Ketchikan

Join a group of TourMagination travellers for a delightful cruise from Fairbanks, Alaska through the Inside Passage to Vancouver. This tour includes three days in Denali National Park—home to a variety of northern wildlife and of course Mount Denali. See spectacular wilderness vistas as you travel on glass-domed rail cars with open-air observation platforms. On a 7-day cruise, enjoy excursions in Skagway, Juneau, Ketchikan, and Vancouver. See unique northern wildlife on land and in the water, calving glaciers, and majestic mountains.

Itinerary

Sunday, August 11 Departure City to Fairbanks, Alaska

Your adventure begins in Fairbanks, the largest city in Alaska's interior and a great introduction to the heart of this unique state. A representative will take you to the hotel to meet with your tour leader and fellow voyagers.

Monday, August 12 Fairbanks, Alaska

Revel in the unique culture and history of the Fairbanks region. Take a cruise on an authentic sternwheeler riverboat down the Chena River. Climb aboard the Gold Dredge 8 where you'll have the unique opportunity to pan for your own gold! Feast on a hearty miner's lunch and then spend free time exploring Fairbanks' charms.

Tuesday, August 13 Denali National Park

Our tour will continue with a motor coach trip to Denali National Park—a popular attraction in Alaska. Which of the 39 species of mammals or 169 species of birds will you see in this six-million-acre wilderness park? Following our excursion to the National Park, unwind at an elegant lodge with unmatched views of the park.

Wednesday, August 14 Denali National Park

A knowledgeable park guide will take us on a natural history tour this morning. In the afternoon, you will have free time to explore on your own. Choose from park activities like hiking or rafting, or just relax at the lodge.

Thursday, August 15 Mt. McKinley (Talkeetna)

Relax on a motor coach ride to the south side of the park and settle in at Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge. Enjoy stunning views from the lodge's Great Room, sprawling deck or elegant restaurant.

Friday, August 16 Mt. McKinley (Talkeetna)

Enjoy Mt. McKinley for a full day. View the attractions around the lodge, take part in some optional activities, or walk some of the many nature trails.

Saturday, August 17 Mt. McKinley to Whittier

Travel to the historic town of Talkeetna. Then, climb aboard the Direct-to-Wilderness Rail to travel to your awaiting ship. Spend time exploring the ship's amenities such as live performances, music and dance lessons, restaurants with local foods and special programs for kids and teens. Or opt for a shore excursion at an additional fee, such as a glacier cruise and drive, or a trip to the Turnagain Arm Wildlife Conservation Centre.

Sunday, August 18 Scenic Cruising: Hubbard Glacier

Get a front row seat to view the 76 mile-long, 1200-foot deep enchanting blue-hued Hubbard Glacier—the largest tidewater glacier in North America. The shores surrounding the iconic iceberg are also celebrated for their northern wildlife – otters, brown bears, moose and black-tailed deer.

Monday, August 19 Scenic Cruising: Glacier Bay National Park

Cruise through Glacier Bay National Park, part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and home to some of Alaska's unique, abundant wildlife. Throughout the day, welcome park rangers to the ship as they share their knowledge and experiences, as well as host a Junior Ranger program for kids.

Tuesday, August 20 Port of Call: Skagway

Today, we will visit the small town of Skagway, a place with a rich gold-mining history. Exciting off-ship excursion options include a guided tour of the Klondike Summit, a city tour, a gold panning experience, a ride on the White Pass Scenic Railway, a sled dog experience, and many more.

Wednesday, August 21 Port of Call: Juneau

Welcome to Juneau, where one of the most significant gold discoveries ever took place. The capital of Alaska is well known for its beautiful views of glaciers and mountains. Today's excursion options include a whale watching excursion, a wildlife viewing expedition, a sea kayaking experience, or a Native canoe adventure.

Thursday, August 22 Port of Call: Ketchikan

Considered Alaska's First City, Ketchikan was known for its fishing and timber industries. With a rich Native heritage, Ketchikan has the world's oldest collection of totem poles. Today's excursions include a lighthouse, totems, and eagles excursion, a coastal wildlife cruise, a misty fjords cruise, and a bear country expedition.

Friday, August 23 At Sea

Spend a full day onboard the ship—talking to other tour members, taking photos of the scenic views, lounging at one of the cafes, or taking part in an activity.

Saturday, August 24 Port of Call: Vancouver, British Columbia

Disembark in Vancouver—Canada's third-largest city. Excursions include a visit to Stanley Park, a city highlights drive, a Capilano Canyon walk, and a brewery tour. Fly home enriched by your Alaskan adventure.
