Join a group of TourMagination travellers for a delightful cruise through Alaska's Inside Passage. This tour includes 3 days in Denali National Park—home to a variety of northern wildlife and of course Mt Denali itself. See spectacular wilderness vistas as you travel by rail on the way to your ship. On a 7-day cruise, enjoy shore excursions in historic Skagway, Juneau, Ketchikan, and Vancouver. As you sail through Glacier Bay National Park, see unique northern wildlife on land and in the water, calving glaciers, and majestic mountains.

Itinerary

Sunday, June 14 Fairbanks, Alaska

A Princess representative will meet you at the Fairbanks airport and take you to the hotel to be introduced to your tour leader and fellow voyagers.

Monday, June 15 Fairbanks, Alaska

Revel in Fairbanks' unique culture and history. Cruise the Chena River on a sternwheeler boat. Climb aboard the Gold Dredge 8 where you'll have the opportunity to pan for your own gold! Spend a free afternoon exploring the charm of Fairbanks.

Tuesday, June 16 Denali National Park

Take a trip to Denali National Park. Which of the many species of animals will we see in this huge wilderness park? Moose? Caribou? Or perhaps a hoary marmot or tundra swan? Following our excursion to the National Park, unwind at the our elegant lodge with unmatched views of the park.

Wednesday, June 17 Denali National Park

A knowledgeable park guide will take us on a natural history tour this morning. Then you will have free time to choose from various park activities like hiking or rafting, or just relax at the lodge.

Thursday, June 18 Mt. McKinley (Talkeetna)

Relax on a drive to the south side of the park and settle in. Enjoy stunning views from your lodge's Great Room, sprawling deck or elegant restaurant.

Friday, June 19 Mt. McKinley (Talkeetna)

Enjoy Mt. McKinley for a full day. View attractions around the lodge, take part in some optional activities, or walk some of the many nature trails.

Saturday, June 20 Mt. McKinley to Whittier

Board the Direct-to-Wilderness Rail that will take you to your ship. Explore the ship's amenities and activities. Or opt for one of the many excursions, including a glacier cruise and drive, or a trip to the Turnagain Arm Wildlife Conservation Centre.

Sun., June 21 Scenic Cruising: Hubbard Glacier

Get a front row seat to view the enchanting blue-hued Hubbard Glacier—the largest tidewater glacier in North America. The shores surrounding the glacier are celebrated for their wildlife, including otters, brown bears, moose and black-tailed deer.

Mon., June 22 Scenic Cruising: Glacier Bay

Cruise through Glacier Bay National Park, part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and home to some of Alaska's unique, abundant wildlife. Throughout the day, welcome park rangers to the ship as they share their knowledge and experiences, as well as host a Junior Ranger program for kids.

Tuesday, June 23 Port of Call: Skagway

Visit the small town of Skagway, a place with a rich history. The once bustling mining town has shrunk to less than a thousand residents after the gold yield declined. Spend your day relaxing on the ship or participate in an optional shore excursion. Exciting excursions include a guided tour of the Klondike Summit, a city tour, a gold panning experience, a ride on the White Pass Scenic Railway, a sled dog experience, and many more.

Wednesday, June 24 Port of Call: Juneau

Welcome to Juneau, where one of the greatest gold discoveries ever took place. The capital of Alaska is home to 30,000 people and is known for its beautiful views of glaciers and mountains. Stay aboard the ship or go on a whale watching excursion, a wildlife viewing expedition, a sea kayaking experience, or a Native canoe adventure.

Thursday, June 25 Port of Call: Ketchikan

Considered Alaska's First City, Ketchikan was known for its fishing and timber industries. With a rich First People's (Native) heritage, Ketchikan has the world's oldest collection of totem poles. Today's on-shore excursion options include a lighthouse, totems, and eagles excursion, a misty fjords cruise, and a bear country expedition.

Friday, June 26 At Sea

Spend the day onboard the ship—talking to other tour members, taking photos of the scenic views, lounging at a café, or taking part in an activity.

Saturday, June 27 Port of Call: Vancouver, BC

Disembark in Vancouver—with its vibrant Chinatown, thousand-acre Stanley Park, charming Granville Island, and fashionable Robson Street with boutiques and fine dining. Excursions include a Stanley Park visit, city highlights drive, a Capilano Canyon walk, and a Vancouver brewery tour. This evening fly home enriched with experiences from your Alaskan adventure.
